SANTA CLAWS?

Christmas Day at the beachhouse

...its becoming a lovely, friendly, local tradition

Open from 10am-noon

a bracing walk & a bacon butty makes for a happy start to the day with a cuppa, or a few cheeky proseccos? maybe a mulled cider?...

definitely with friends PUT IT ON THE LIST!

Not taking bookings, just turn up. You just might have to squash-up,

(so, nothing new there then!)

NEW TO THE MENU

MONKFISH FRITTERS

TAPAS-Y STYLE NIBBLY BITS OF JUICY FISH, HAND PANKO-ED TO ORDER, WITH OUR SUBLIME HOMEMADE AIOLI TO DIP
...order as soon as you sit down, take a minute to choose one of our thoughtfully selected wines, and enjoy a taste of what's to come

Other beachhouse favourites we can offer as an appetiser...

- BREAD & OLIVES WITH DUKKAH £5.5
- WHITEBAIT FLOURED & SEASONED £7.5
- GARLIC CIABATTA TOTES AMAZING £3.5
- CRISPY SQUID WITH AIOLI £9.5

FACT #1 Dukkah: a north African/arabic aromatic mixture consisting of roasted nuts and spices, no particular recipe exists, it depends on your own taste, ours is our own secret recipe (hint-sometimes you can get the delicious waft of roasting A*S coming from our ovens!) A crunchy dip for bread & quality oil

CLASSIC AND STUNNING

SEA BREAM

WITH CAPONATA

£18

FACT #2 Seabream: commonly found in oceans surrounding Europe, it's a temperate water fish, and sometimes considered as sport fish. Very sought after because of their mild white meat, considered as some of the best of any white-meat fish. If you like sea bass, you will probably like sea bream Best cooked simply and elegantly

FACT #3 Caponata: is a Sicilian aubergine dish, with celery, herbs & capers, with sweetened vinegar, making a delightful sweet & sour accompaniment
